

Memorandum of Agreement
MCCC and Bristol Community College

Those adjunct faculty teaching in the Fall 2018 semester will be contacted by MCCC to remind each to complete the Title IX training.

For those adjunct faculty not teaching in the Fall 2018 semester, 1) the letter of nonreappointment will be pulled from their file and 2) upon any submission of availability form any appointment letter will include the condition that Title IX training required by the College pursuant to Article 13.01 (either the one meeting per session or $40 if an additional meeting) shall occur no later than two weeks prior to class start or the appointment will be automatically revoked.
